MARK TRAUTMAN is Director of Music at Christ Church in New Brunswick, where he oversees a program of seven choirs and plays the church's unique Richards, Fowkes and Company organ. He also serves as Artistic Director and Conductor of the New Brunswick Chamber Orchestra, and is a member of the faculty of the Music Department of the Mason Gross School of the Arts of Rutgers University. He has prepared choruses for performances at Carnegie Hall, and has frequently served as an adjudicator for events sponsored by the American Choral Directors' Association, the American Guild of Organists and the New Jersey Folk Festival. He studied with Thomas Spacht and Eugene Roan, and holds degrees with honors in organ performance and church music from Towson University in Baltimore and Westminster Choir College of Rider University in Princeton.

WELCOME TO CHRIST CHURCH IN NEW BRUNSWICK and thank you for your support of the music ministry of this parish. We are grateful to all who make these programs possible, and we hope that you will consider making a tax-deductible contribution to help these programs continue. The Music Endowment is the sole source of funding for the Vespers Recital Series and other music programs throughout the year. Cash, or checks in any amount may be made to "Christ Church Music Endowment" and placed in the basket in the entrance to the nave. If you wish to be placed on our mailing list, please sign the guest register in the back of the church. We look forward to seeing you again!
